

teachingpyramid

Teaching Pyramid Spotlight

With Holly Harvan & Melynda Velasquez

Four individual trainings on September 13th, November 2nd, January 1st, and February 7th, 6:00-7:30pm on Zoom

The SBCEO Inclusion Initiative is proud to offer four separate Teaching Pyramid Spotlight sessions to support sustainability county-wide. These online sessions are intended to revisit specific Teaching Pyramid strategies, providing a refresher as well as a deeper understanding.

Click the links below to register.
You must register for each session individually. Zoom links will be sent after registration.

9/13/23 Expectations, Emotional
Deposits, PDA

11/2/23 Hot Buttons, Reframing,
Values-Perceptions-Beliefs

1/11/24 When to Teach,
Direct/Indirect Teaching, etc.

2/7/24 Emotional Literacy,
Managing Strong Emotions

This training will cover four individual topics under the Teaching Pyramid model. We encourage you to attend all four sessions, but it is not mandatory.

- 9/13, 6:00pm-7:30pm, Expectations, Emotional Deposits, Positive Descriptive Acknowledgement (PDA)
- 11/2, 6:00pm-7:30pm, Hot Buttons, Reframing, Values-Perceptions-Beliefs
- 1/11, 6:00pm-7:30pm, When to Teach, Direct/Indirect Teaching, Problem Solving, Conflict Resolution
- 2/7, 6:00pm-7:30pm, Emotional Literacy, Managing Strong Emotions

This professional development opportunity is brought to you by Santa Barbara County Education Office -Inclusive Practices Pathway. This training series can be used for the Inclusive Practices Pathway Workforce Pathways Stipend Program. All training hours will be credited through Workforce Registry found here www.caregistry.org.

